Seminar Announcement

Analytic Training: The New Mexico Seminar

The C.G. Jung Institute of Santa Fe is now a training seminar in collaboration with the InterRegional Society for Jungian Analysts (IRSJA).

Individuals seeking to pursue such training are required to attend a preliminary seminar for a period of at least six months. This preliminary seminar will comply with the requirements for application for training through the Institute. Applications may be submitted from any state in the United States.

Applications are due on August 1, 2014

Others interested in studying Jung in depth without Training may also apply

Nine seminars beginning in September, 2014 will cover basic Jungian concepts with 5 hours of theory and 1.5 hours of a reflection group.

Fee: $900.00 for the preliminary year

For more information about application to the study group, please email:

Dr. Jacqueline Zeller Levine at jzlevine8@gmail.com

New Book Review

Susan Olson, Jungian Analyst, has published a review of Stephen Grosz's book The Examined Life: How We Lose and Find Ourselves (New York and London: W. W. Norton & Co., 2013), in the current issue of Journal of Analytical Psychology.

Guidelines & Suggestions

- Send only 300 words or less.
- I'd encourage you to include a web link if appropriate.
- Attachments will not be forwarded - all content will be in the final document.
- Send moderate sized image files. If they are too large the server will bounce them back.
- Please understand that I will need to change the formatting of your submission to fit into the document but I will not change your content in any way.
- Your name and email will be tagged to your posts since content will not be vetted.
