UNEDITED! UNRESTRICTED!! UNCENSORED!!!

Wending our way to Albuquerque...

The hard midday of these great sands has come:
 the world is bare.
 wide, sterile and pure to the remotest
 sandy frontiers:
 heard is the brittle sound
 of living salt, only salt marshes:
 the sun is broken glass in the vacant expanse
 and the dying earth has a dry
 and muffled sound of salt that moans.

One sees the circuit of the desert,
 and the high night space of the pampas
 a nocturnal circle, spacious and starry,
 where the Tamarugal region collects
 all the silence lost in time.

A thousand years of silence in a goblet
 of calcareous blue, of distance and moon,
 fashioned of the bare geography of night.

I love you, pure land, like many contrary things I've loved:
 the rose, the road, riches, the rite.

I love you, pure sister of the ocean.
 For me so difficult is this empty school
 in which there is not man, nor wall,
 no plant to lend me support.

I was alone.
 Life was a solitary place.
 This the courageous breast of the world.
 And I love the system of your demanding form.
 The precise extent of your emptiness.

The New Orleans Jungian Seminar is pleased to announce the first annual summer Colloquium with Guest & senior Training Analyst Patricia Berry, PhD

July 10 & 11, 2015
In New Orleans, LA

12 Hours COLLOQ Credit

open to Jungian Analytic Training Candidates

Come for the weekend to work and play in the vibrant city of New Orleans with one of Depth Psychology's best known and most innovative practitioners, Pat Berry, Ph.D. A Founder of Archetypal Psychology with James Hillman, her career spans fifty years during which she has taught extensively, written numerous articles, worked in private practice, and lectured internationally. She is a graduate of the Jung Institute, Zurich, and was the first Scholar in Residence at Pacifica Graduate Institute. Her book, Echo's Subtle Body: A Contribution to Archetypal Psychology, is an essential text in the practice of Archetypal Psychology.

Pat has facilitated numerous colloquia and this is a unique opportunity to enrich your experience of working with the alchemical currents alive in the Images and Dreams of your cases. Pat has been the President of the New England Society of Jungian Analysts and The Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts.

NEW BOOK

An Orphan's Odyssey Sacred Journeys to Renewal, Chiron Publications. Rose-Emily Rothenberg explores the images and symbols that appeared in the stories, myths, and dreams surrounding her travels to Africa, reconnecting her to ancestors, both human and animal, who helped her access her cultural roots. In giving voice to these, she renews her connection to the Self and to the Divine.

NEW BOOK

A Taste for Chaos The Art of Literary Improvisation, Spring Journal Books. Literary scholar Randy Fertel Ph.D. explores this undercurrent of spontaneity in literature and identifies a new metagenre called improvisation - texts that claim to have been written without effort or craft, like an idea that hits you in the shower. Whether the authors claim to have written them in a dream, instinctively, off the top of their head, or when drunk, they have done so, so they claim, without effort, and their work is the more valuable because of it.

GOOD NEWS

In September 2014 Robert Romanyshyn was made an Emeritus Prof. of Clinical Psychology at Pacifica Graduate Institute. A Festschrift in his honor, Imagining Psychological Life: Philosophical, Psychological and Poetic Reflections, edited by Dr. Michael Sipiora was published in late 2014. His new book, Leaning Toward the Poet: Eavesdropping on the Poetry of Everyday Life was published also in 2014.

A webinar series, Conversations between a Psychologist and a Poet: The Healing Power of Language sponsored by the Depth Psychology Alliance continues with sessions April 8, 15, 22. A ten-week webinar program, The Frankenstein Prophecies: Jungian-Archetypal Reflections on Ecological Crises and the God Wars sponsored by The Jung Platform begins August 12, 2015. He recently gave the Jungian keynote address, The Frankenstein Prophecies; Reflections on The Shadows of Technological Power, at the University of Toronto Matter Mind Conference V. He is currently working with a theater group in Los Angeles to adapt The Frankenstein Prophecies into a play.

NEW PUBLISHED ARTICLES

Mogenson, Greg, “Inwardizing Rilke’s dog of ‘divine inseeing’ into itself,” Journal of Analytical Psychology, 2015, 60, 2, 245–266. This article explores a text of the poet R.M. Rilke in the manner of Psychology as the Discipline of Interiority (PDI).

Mogenson, Greg, “The bark and bite of the logically negative soul: further reflections on Rilke’s dog of ‘divine inseeing,’” Journal of Analytical Psychology, 2015, 60, 2, 267–280. Following upon the approach taken in the previous essay, this article critically reflects Rilke’s account of his having imaginatively entered into the interior of a passing dog more deeply into itself.

Dear Presidents of the IAAP Group Members,

The Executive Committee of IAAP has on recommendation from the Honorary Members Sub Committee accepted 5 nominations for Honorary Membership of IAAP.

The nominated persons are:

- Ulrich Hoerni
- Andreas Jung
- Prof. Shizuthero Ueda
- Dr. Harald Atmanspacher
- Prof. Shinichi Nakazawa

We kindly ask you if you have any formal objections to the proposed candidates. Should this be the case we ask you to set your formal objections down in writing and send them to us before June 30th. Please note that you are obliged to maintain formal confidentiality and that you should not contact any of the nominated candidates.

The further procedure after June 30th will be as follows:

If there are no objections, the names will be submitted to the Meeting of Delegates for a vote of acceptance to Honorary Membership. If a formal objection is put forward, the Chair of the Sub Committee will proceed by informing the nominators and asking them if they wish to continue with their proposal. Having received the answers from the nominators, the Executive Committee will at its Meeting in February 2016 decide which of the names are to go forward as nominations to Honorary Membership. All the names that are to be taken further to the Meeting of Delegates for a vote of acceptance to Honorary Membership will be announced at the Council of Societies Meeting in February 2016, and after having consulted with both nominees and nominators, information about the nominees will thereafter be posted on the IAAP website in the member's only area in order to make the nominated persons known.

With my very best wishes,
Tom Kelly
IAAP President

Council of North American Societies of Jungian Analysts

You are invited to attend a

GATHERING

Of Jungian Analysts, Candidates and Significant others - this time in Santa Fe!

On the Edge and in the Center:

Exploring Patterns in outer/inner worlds
Hotel Santa Fe, located near the Plaza in Santa Fe, New Mexico
Thursday – Sunday,
September 24 – 27, 2015

The theme of this gathering sets the stage for us to join in explorations of questions that penetrate the assumptions of our work: Is there a center or many centers to psyche? What lies at the edges and beyond? How do we imagine the interaction between center and edges in both individual and collective dynamics, in both intrapsychic and interpersonal dimensions? To launch our time together, we have invited two scholars, each renowned and in the center of their own fields, who are dynamically edgy and thus stimulating to Jungian thought. We open on Friday with introductions of their cutting edge investigations into the complex realms of community and city life. On Saturday we gather our own voices around the theme of edges and centers through brief presentations and communal discussions.

GATHERING fee for analysts, candidates and significant others (who attend the full conference) is $170 post-marked by April 1; after that it is $195 until August 1, after which it becomes $220.

C.G. Jung Institute of Santa Fe

www.santafejung.org

The C.G. Jung Institute of Santa Fe, an IRSJA Training Seminar announces a summer intensive for 12 hours of Case Colloquia credits.

June 12, 13 and 14, 2015 in Santa Fe, NM

Brian Feldman, Ph.D., will coordinate the weekend with an emphasis on Infant and Adult Attachment as affected by developmental, environmental and cultural issues.

The emergence of primitive/infantile mental states within the transference/countertransference relationship will be explored as well as how we as analysts reflect upon, hold and contain primitive/infantile emotional states and how the analytic exploration of these mental states promotes integration and individuation. The transmission of cultural and social trauma will also be explored as trauma is transmitted from one generation to the next at both conscious and unconscious levels.

This Intensive will be Friday, June 12 from 6-8 PM, Saturday, June 13 from 9-4:30, and Sunday, June 15 from 9-1:00.

Brian Feldman is a certified child, adolescent, and adult Jungian psychoanalyst and infant observation seminar leader. He is the Chair of the infant, child and adolescent training program at the Jung Institute of San Francisco, and an active member of the IRSJA.

Location: Santa Fe, NM at the Hotel Santa Fe

Cost: $400.00 due by March 30, 2015

The number of participants will be limited, with IRSJA control candidates and candidates to get first priority.

Motherhood as an Opportunity for Psychological Growth

There are countless books written on the subject of child development, but what about the growth and development of the mother? No matter what part of the motherhood (or grandmotherhood) journey we find ourselves on, parenting presents us with unique challenges -- as well as unique opportunities to know ourselves better. Using fairy tales and myths, we will explore themes such as loss, shadow, and authority as it relates to our mothering selves.

Lisa Marchiano, LCSW, NCPsA is a Jungian analyst in private practice in the Mt. Airy section of Philadelphia. She has a special interest in fairy tales, and is currently working on a book exploring motherhood from a Jungian perspective.

DATE: Sunday, May 3, 2015 from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM

LOCATION: Ethical Society, Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia
