UNEDITED! UNRESTRICTED!! UNCENSORED!!!

“The American laugh is most impressive. Laughing is a very important emotional expression and one learns a lot about character from a careful observation of the way people laugh. There are people who suffer from a crippled laughter. It’s just painful to see them laugh and the sound of that shrill, evil, compressed rattle almost makes you sick. America as a nation can laugh, and that means a lot. There is still a childlikeness, a soundness of emotion, an immediate rapport with your fellow being.”

Jung and the Expressive Arts Explore the Mysteries, Discover the Self

An Experiential Workshop with Sandy Geller

Jungian Analyst, Licensed Art Therapist, LPCAT, LPC
Saturday, July 18th, 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Chevy Chase, Maryland

This workshop will explore the fundamentals of Jungian art therapy, dream work, active imagination and amplification of symbols. We will use methods such as the Scribble Technique, Tissue Paper Collage and Sandplay. Each workshop is different and evolves spontaneously. The “temenos” is the safe space where we do this work as a small group and with a seasoned guide. The nature of the workshop creates the possibility of reclaiming lost parts of the self in life’s journey towards transformation and individuation. The expressive work promotes the development of what Jung called the “symbolic attitude” where the unique self is revealed through symbol and alchemy.

FOUNDERS HALL ROOM 111

3351 North Fairfax Drive, Arlington, VA 22201

Metro: Orange Line, Clarendon or Virginia Square

PROGRAM

In recent years much attention has been given to the study and treatment of traumatized individuals in the clinical setting. But what of the communities that suffer monumental social problems in the face of our contemporary global epidemic of collective violence? How might traumatized communities heal the brokenness that trauma imposes upon social and cultural identity? This symposium views collective trauma through the unique lens of Jungian psychological theory and demonstrates how two distinguished Jungian practitioners work toward transformation of trauma outside the bounds of the consulting room.

A.M. Session: On the Art of Social Transformation: A Depth Psychology Perspective. Presenter: DR. EBERHARD RIEDEL, Jungian Analyst, Seattle, Washington.

Stemming from his extensive work in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Dr. Riedel will demonstrate how “purposeful action” energizes communities to overcome the paralysis of trauma and effects long-term change.

P.M. Session: The Message of Myth: Finding Meaning and Healing on the Journey. Presenter: DR. G. KWAME SCRUGGS, Founder & Director of Alchemy, Akron, Ohio

Dr. Scruggs will speak of his twenty-year odyssey fostering the development of urban American youth through myth-telling. Participants will experience this unique approach through personal engagement with an ancient African myth.

GATHERING

Of Jungian Analysts, Candidates and Significant others - this time in Santa Fe!

On the Edge and in the Center:

Exploring Patterns in outer/inner worlds
Hotel Santa Fe, located near the Plaza in Santa Fe, New Mexico
Thursday – Sunday,
September 24 – 27, 2015

The theme of this gathering sets the stage for us to join in explorations of questions that penetrate the assumptions of our work: Is there a center or many centers to psyche? What lies at the edges and beyond? How do we imagine the interaction between center and edges in both individual and collective dynamics, in both intrapsychic and interpersonal dimensions? To launch our time together, we have invited two scholars, each renowned and in the center of their own fields, who are dynamically edgy and thus stimulating to Jungian thought. We open on Friday with introductions of their cutting edge investigations into the complex realms of community and city life. On Saturday we gather our own voices around the theme of edges and centers through brief presentations and communal discussions.

GATHERING fee for analysts, candidates and significant others (who attend the full conference) is $170 post-marked by April 1; after that it is $195 until August 1, after which it becomes $220.

IJPSP Candidate / Student Essay Award Contest

The International Journal of Psychoanalytic Self Psychology is pleased to announce the fourth year of its new, annual psychoanalytic candidate/student essay award. This award contest is open to all psychoanalytic candidates and graduate level students from any discipline writing on psychoanalytic topics. Essays need to be written in English, should be no longer than 7500 words, and must be submitted by August 7, without exception.

The winner of the contest is announced in October of each year at the International Conference on The Psychology of The Self. The winner will receive a plaque, consideration for publication of their essay in the IJPSP, and an honorarium of $500.00.

Candidates/students interested in entering the contest for the year 2015 must submit essays to IJPSP_Essay_Award@iapsp.org by midnight, PDT, August 7, 2015. Please include a cover letter that specifies the title of the essay, the author's name, and his or her contact information. Please do not put the author's name on the essay.

Questions may be directed to the chair of the program, Carol Mayhew, PhD, at IJPSP_Essay_Award@iapsp.org

New Book

Ancient Greece, Modern Psyche Archetypes Evolving Edited by Virginia Beane Rutter, Thomas Singer Routledge - 2015

Between ancient Greece and modern psyche lies a divide of not only three thousand years, but two cultures that are worlds apart in art, technology, economics and the accelerating flood of historical events. This unique collection of essays from an international selection of contributors offers compelling evidence for the natural connection and relevance of ancient myth to contemporary psyche, and emerges from the second 'Ancient Greece, Modern Psyche' conference held in Santorini, Greece, in 2012. This volume is a powerful homecoming for those seeking a living connection between the psyche of the ancients and our modern psyche. This book looks at eternal themes such as love, beauty, death, suicide, dreams, ancient Greek myths, the Homeric heroes and the stories of Demeter, Persephone, Apollo and Hermes as they connect with themes of the modern psyche. The contributors propose that the link between them lies in the underlying archetypal patterns of human behaviour, emotion, image, thought, and memory.
