UNEDITED! UNRESTRICTED!! UNCENSORED!!!

But what is significant in psychic life always lies below the horizon of consciousness, and when we speak of the spiritual problem of modern man we are speaking of things that are barely visible— of the most intimate and fragile things, of flowers that open only in the night.

"Nature always wears the colors of the spirit."

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Psychological Perspectives and the C.G Jung Institute recently sponsored a conference here in Los Angeles: "Between the Human Animal and the Animate Earth" featuring Ecologist, David Abram, and three Jungian colleagues. I prepared a handout which was given to each participant. Given this context and the urgency of the environmental issues facing all of us, I would much appreciate your including this colorful document for our members to contemplate and hopefully act upon.

Thank you,

Through telling, discussing, and analyzing ancient African myths, you will discover elements of the stories that you are living and unseen burdens you may be carrying as you walk the road of life. Brief writing exercises in response to penetrating questions pertaining to the myth will help you explore the myth while the myth explores you.

G. Kwame Scruggs, PhD, (<http://alchemyinc.net/g-kwame-scruggs-ph-d/>) has over 20 years of experience using myth in the development of urban male youth. He holds a Ph.D. and MA in Mythological Studies with an emphasis in Depth Psychology from Pacifica Graduate Institute in Santa Barbara, California. Kwame also holds a MS degree in Technical Education with an emphasis in Guidance and Counseling from the University of Akron. He has conducted numerous workshops on the use of myth to engage urban youth and is also a Certified Facilitator of the Akan System of Life Cycle Development (African-based rites of passage).

Kwame is the Founder and Executive Director of Alchemy, a non-profit organization based in Akron, Ohio. Since its inception in 2004, Alchemy has worked with over 1,750 male urban youth in group settings. In 2012, Alchemy was one of 12 programs to receive the National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Award by the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities, the nation's highest honor for afterschool and out-of-school programs. Alchemy is also the backdrop in full-length documentary film "Finding the Gold Within" by Karina Epperlein (<http://goldthefilm.com/>). Three years in the making and released in 2014, the film has been featured in Mill Valley Film Festival and the Cleveland International Film Festival.

NEW BOOK

From Tradition to Innovation
Jungian Analysts Working in Different Cultural Settings
Catherine Crowther and Jan Wiener

This compilation of sixteen chapters gives a fascinating account of the wide variety of experiences of Jungian analysts working in different cultures across the world – for example in Russia, China, Poland, Lithuania, South Africa and Mexico. The contributors describe and reflect on their experiences both of offering and receiving training within these cross-cultural professional partnerships.

GATHERINGOf Jungian Analysts, Candidates and Significant others - this time in Santa Fe!On the Edge and in the Center:

Exploring Patterns in outer/inner worlds
Hotel Santa Fe, located near the Plaza in Santa Fe, New Mexico
Thursday – Sunday,
September 24 – 27, 2015

The theme of this gathering sets the stage for us to join in explorations of questions that penetrate the assumptions of our work: Is there a center or many centers to psyche? What lies at the edges and beyond? How do we imagine the interaction between center and edges in both individual and collective dynamics, in both intrapsychic and interpersonal dimensions? To launch our time together, we have invited two scholars, each renowned and in the center of their own fields, who are dynamically edgy and thus stimulating to Jungian thought. We open on Friday with introductions of their cutting edge investigations into the complex realms of community and city life. On Saturday we gather our own voices around the theme of edges and centers through brief presentations and communal discussions.

GATHERING fee for analysts, candidates and significant others (who attend the full conference) is $170 post-marked by April 1; after that it is $195 until August 1, after which it becomes $220.

The C. G. Jung Center of New York is pleased to announce
A Red Book Event
March 4-5, 2016

From February 29 to April 1, 2016, an exhibition of the Digital Fusion prints from Jung's Red Book will take place at the Salena Gallery of Long Island University - Brooklyn. You are cordially invited to the Opening Reception on Friday evening, March 4, at the gallery at One University Place, Brooklyn. These magnificent 25x33 inch reproductions of Jung's paintings made their art world debut at the 55th Annual Venice Biennale in 2013, where the original manuscript of the Red Book was on display.

In conjunction with the exhibit, a Conference will be held on Saturday, March 5, at the C. G. Jung Center of New York, 28 East 39th Street. Entitled Snakes, Dragons, and other Scaly Creatures, the Conference is co-sponsored by the C. G. Jung Institute of New York, the New York Association for Analytical Psychology, the C. G. Jung Foundation of New York, the Archive for Research in Archetypal Symbolism, and the Analytical Psychology Club of New York. Presentations will be 30 minutes in length plus time for discussion afterward. More details and registration information will follow.

CALL FOR PAPERS

This one-day conference will focus on the image of the snake and its multivalent representations, which appear frequently in the Red Book. Jung asserted that when we meditate on a particular image, it comes alive and takes on an independent life of its own: "That is the case with any fantasy image. . . . It gets restless, it shifts, something is added, or it multiples itself; one fills it with living power."* We invite you to muse on the symbol of the snake. Let the image speak to you and stir your imagination. Follow your ideas into realms such as psychological theory, mythology, clinical practice, and contemporary culture. All Jungian analysts and training candidates who are interested in presenting a thirty minute paper should send a proposal of 300 words or less to snakesanddragonsnyc@gmail.com by September 15. Submissions should also include contact information, a brief biography, and a description of any planned audio-visual elements. Notification of acceptance by November 15.

TRANSFORMING TRAUMA
Through Myth and Image from African Village to American Inner City

Saturday, September 26, 2015

8:30 AM to 5:00 PM —12:00 to 1:30 Lunch on Your Own
GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY, FOUNDERS HALL
ROOM 111

3351 North Fairfax Drive, Arlington, VA 22201

Metro: Orange Line, Clarendon or Virginia Square

In recent years much attention has been given to the study and treatment of traumatized individuals in the clinical setting. But what of the communities that suffer monumental social problems in the face of our contemporary global epidemic of collective violence? How might traumatized communities heal the brokenness that trauma imposes upon social and cultural identity? This symposium views collective trauma through the unique lens of Jungian psychological theory and demonstrates how two distinguished Jungian practitioners work toward transformation of trauma outside the bounds of the consulting room.

A.M. Session: On the Art of Social Transformation: A Depth Psychology Perspective

Presenter: DR. EBERHARD RIEDEL, Jungian Analyst,
Seattle, Washington

Stemming from his extensive work in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Dr. Riedel will demonstrate how "purposeful action" energizes communities to overcome the paralysis of trauma and effects long-term change.

P.M. Session: The Message of Myth: Finding Meaning and Healing on the Journey

Presenter: DR. G. KWAME SCRUGGS, Founder &
Director of Alchemy, Akron, Ohio

Dr. Scruggs will speak of his twenty-year odyssey fostering the development of urban American youth through myth-telling. Participants will experience this unique approach through personal engagement with an ancient African myth.

To register: www.jung.org

General Admission: $90; Admission plus 6 CEs for psychologists: $100

This program is sponsored by The Jungian Analysts of Washington Association (JAWA). JAWA is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. JAWA maintains responsibility for this program and its content.
