

IRSJA : Waiver for Prospective Trainees

I do herewith pledge to the Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts of North America and to the public-at-large that I will not use any wording regarding my professional identity that will infringe on a legally-defined field of psychotherapeutic or medical practice. I also understand that I am not to imply that I have a legal position to practice analytical psychology or Jungian analysis if there is any possibility that I may be infringing on any law relating to the practice of psychology, psychotherapy, psychiatry, counseling, or any other mental health profession.

I hereby acknowledge that if the Society grants me a diploma, such diploma confers no legal right to practice as a psychotherapist. Arrangement for legal practice is my own responsibility.

It is my understanding that if I present myself publically or privately by any title that infringes on a legally-defined psychotherapeutic profession, such action will mean expulsion from the training program; or if graduated and a member of the Society, such action will mean expulsion from the Society and recommendation to the International Association for Analytical Psychology for expulsion from said organization. Such expulsion will be implemented through a review by the Ethics Committee and ratified by a two-thirds vote of the Society.

As consideration for the provision to me of training by the Society, I agree to indemnify the Society, its incorporators, officers, members, directors, agents and employees for, and hold them harmless from and against, any and all liability, losses, damages, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), causes of action, suits, claims, demands and judgements of any nature or form incurred by or on behalf of the Society, its incorporators, officers, members, directors, agents, and employees, arising in any manner in connection with my practice of counseling, psychology, psychotherapy, psychiatry, analysis or other related activity while I am a training candidate. Upon notice from the Society, I agree to defend the Society, its incorporators, officers, members, directors, agents and employees in any action or proceeding brought in connection with the activities described in this paragraph.

I certify that I have read "A Guide to the Training and Regulations" published by the Training Institute of the Society and agree to accept and abide by the terms of the training program outlined in that Guide. I understand that by the Society's continuing my status in the training program, the Society does not guarantee or promise, either expressly or impliedly, that the Society will pass me from any stage of training to another or that it will ever confer a diploma upon me. I also understand that the Society may expel me from the training program at any time and for any reason which the Society considers appropriate. I agree, as a condition of continuation in the training program, that I will forego any legal claim against the Society arising from any action that the Society may take with respect to my training or my continued participation in the training program; however, that nothing in this sentence shall preclude me from the right to appeal decisions of the committees or boards of the Society, as outlined in "A Guide to the Training and Regulations" of the Training Institute of the Society.
